

“The Fellowship of Sanctified Saints”

---

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

March 8, 2020

Purpose: We learn much about God and the church from the beginning of the letter.

1. God is _____ & Gives Us His _____ (v. 1-3)

2. I am _____ that We are _____ (v. 4-8)

3. God is _____ & Called Us into _____ (v. 9)

“The Fellowship of Sanctified Saints”

---

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

March 8, 2020

Purpose: We learn much about God and the church from the beginning of the letter.

1. God is _____ & Gives Us His _____ (v. 1-3)

2. I am _____ that We are _____ (v. 4-8)

3. God is _____ & Called Us into _____ (v. 9)

FACTS ON 1 CORINTHIANS (J. Carl Laney)

Author: The _____ authorship of the epistle is clear from 1:1 and 16:21 and is practically uncontested.

Readers: Paul addressed his epistle to _____ at Corinth (1:2). Corinth was a great trade center strategically situated on the isthmus which links the Peloponnesus with mainland Greece. The city had two fine ports: Cenchreae on the Aegean Sea to the east, and Lechaeum on the Adriatic Sea to the west. As a commercial center, Corinth was known for its wealth, indulgence, and immorality. It was a worship center for Aphrodite, the goddess of love.

Date of Writing: Paul wrote his epistle to the Corinthians from _____ (16:8) towards the end of his ministry there during his third missionary journey (A.D. 53-57). The epistle was probably written around A.D. _____.

Historical Setting: Paul first visited Corinth in A.D. 51 on his _____ missionary journey after his ministry in Athens (Acts 18:1). There he met Aquila and Priscilla and joined them in the trade of tent making to provide financial support while he _____ the city. Paul was later joined by Silas and Timothy (Acts 18:5) and the team engaged in a very successful ministry for a year and a half (Acts 18:8,11). The immediate occasion of Paul's writing was that he had received a letter (16:17) from the church inquiring concerning certain problem issues (7:1,25; 8:1; 12:1; 16:1). First Corinthians constitutes Paul's _____.

Purpose: Paul wrote the epistle to _____ the disorders within the church and reply to certain questions raised by the Corinthians.

Theme: The _____ and _____ of believers.

FACTS ON 1 CORINTHIANS (J. Carl Laney)

Author: The _____ authorship of the epistle is clear from 1:1 and 16:21 and is practically uncontested.

Readers: Paul addressed his epistle to _____ at Corinth (1:2). Corinth was a great trade center strategically situated on the isthmus which links the Peloponnesus with mainland Greece. The city had two fine ports: Cenchreae on the Aegean Sea to the east, and Lechaeum on the Adriatic Sea to the west. As a commercial center, Corinth was known for its wealth, indulgence, and immorality. It was a worship center for Aphrodite, the goddess of love.

Date of Writing: Paul wrote his epistle to the Corinthians from _____ (16:8) towards the end of his ministry there during his third missionary journey (A.D. 53-57). The epistle was probably written around A.D. _____.

Historical Setting: Paul first visited Corinth in A.D. 51 on his _____ missionary journey after his ministry in Athens (Acts 18:1). There he met Aquila and Priscilla and joined them in the trade of tent making to provide financial support while he _____ the city. Paul was later joined by Silas and Timothy (Acts 18:5) and the team engaged in a very successful ministry for a year and a half (Acts 18:8,11). The immediate occasion of Paul's writing was that he had received a letter (16:17) from the church inquiring concerning certain problem issues (7:1,25; 8:1; 12:1; 16:1). First Corinthians constitutes Paul's _____.

Purpose: Paul wrote the epistle to _____ the disorders within the church and reply to certain questions raised by the Corinthians.

Theme: The _____ and _____ of believers.